Organisation	Website	Organisation Description	Project Description	£	Months	Borough
Empty Homes Agency Ltd	www.actiononemptyhomes.org/	Empty Homes Agency campaigns for long-term empty homes to be brought into use for people in housing need, in particular those living on low incomes. They collaborate with those who feel they are being locked out of low-cost housing supply and their communities are being broken up by the types of housing investment that produce underutilisation of property through a growth in short-lets and second homes and buy-to-leave empty investments. They seek legislative change to strengthen community-led involvement planning decisions to challenge housing investment that sucks supply out of communities, increase the powers to force refurbishment of long-term empty homes and improve Government administrative data and create a transparent beneficial owner and landlords register.	The funding is for a London-wide, community-led coalition leading into the 2024 GLA and General Elections, to advocate for a fair development policy platform to meet low-income housing needs and to challenge the present housing investment model, which creates growing numbers of empty and underutilised homes and increases housing poverty.	£60,000	24	London-wide

Transport for All	www.transportforall.org.uk/	Equitable access to transport for all citizens is a basic requirement for a just, inclusive society. The ability to move and travel provides access to education, employment, community and simply having fun. But not everyone has equal access to public transport or their local streets. Transport for All (TfA) is the only disabled-led group striving to increase access to transport and streetspace across the UK. They work with their members to fight for transport access, championing disabled and older people's rights and providing an unrivalled community of support.	The funding is for continuation of 'Access, Rights, Advice', a scheme delivering transport sector system change and ensuring policies are directly influenced by disabled people and based on their needs. The scheme: collates impactful data, develops disabled people as agents of social change and campaigns for much needed structural reform.	£150,000	36	London-wide, National

The majority of these are from the BAME community and already experience significant difficulties as a consequence of structural inequalities.	This funding is for the running costs of their two night shelters for homeless people (one mixed and one for women). Their two case workers will support them to move on into permanent accommodation. About 100 people will benefit from this service in the course of the year.	£7,500	12	Hackney

JW3 Trust Limited	www.jw3.org.uk/foodbank	JW3 is the only Jewish Community Centre of its kind in the UK; a public, vibrant, cross-communal hub for arts, culture, family programming, social action, education and much more, open to all, where everyone is welcome regardless of race, religion, belief, age, class, sexuality, gender, ability or background.	The funding is for their work in response to growing demand in the local area from families struggling with the impact of food poverty. We've opened a food bank and food cooking service and have delivered over 240k meals worth of food to date. Demand continues to grow	£7,500	12	Barnet, Camden
SOFII Foundation	www.sofii.org	SOFII offers fundraisers free resources and information so they can raise more money for good causes. They share the innovation and inspiration that invigorates their sector and helps fundraisers maximise their success - regardless of experience, training budget, or location. They do this through their website, events and growing community.	The funding is to expand their virtual/hybrid events that enable fundraisers - including those working for charities tackling poverty and inequality in London - on limited budgets, to be inspired by a diverse group of speakers. They will continue to build their free online archive of fundraising information and innovation.	£7,500	12	National
Refugees at Home	www.refugeesathome.org/	Refugees at Home connects those with a spare room in their home with asylum seekers and refugees in urgent need of a safe place to stay. They have hosted over 2,600 guests for 200,289 nights, that would otherwise have been spent on night buses, park benches or worse.	The funding is for scaling up in London, their core placement city. They have received 12,000+ host applications since war started in Ukraine - far more than they are able to process at their current size. They must grow quickly to give as many refugees as possible a welcoming home.	£7,500	12	London-wide
SafeLives	www.safelives.org.uk	SafeLives is working to end domestic abuse, for everyone and for good. Their work helps people: Act before someone harms or is harmed, Identify and stop harmful behaviour, Increase safety for all those at risk, Help people live the lives they want after harm happens.	The funding is for SafeLives to work with partners such as Lioness Circle, Al-Hasaniya, HOPE Network. As a white-majority organisation, it's crucial they collaborate with sister organisations working with women from minoritised groups. The voices of their service users should guide their family court, 'whole health', and young people's projects.	£7,500	12	London-wide, National
Future Barking and Dagenham Youth Zone	www.futureyouthzone.org	Future Youth Zone is a state-of-the art Youth Zone; a fun and safe place for young people to spend their leisure time, inspiring them to live healthier, happier, more aspirational lives. They are open 52 weeks a year for any young person aged 8-19 (or 25 with additional needs).	The funding is for a dedicated team of youth workers to offer 20+ activities every night, like dance, cooking, sports and music, and giving them a positive role model to talk to about any challenges they have, to ensure a young person's background doesn't prevent them reaching their potential.	£7,500	12	Barking and Dagenham

METRO Centre	www.metrocharity.org.uk/	METRO is a leading equalities charity supporting people across London and the South East. They work with anyone experiencing issues around sexuality, gender, equality, diversity and identity. Their services are arranged across five domains: Sexual & Reproductive Health, Community, Mental Health & Wellbeing, Youth and HIV.	The funding is for a youth service and bolstering the support provided to LGBTQ+ young people, specifically through a fortnightly Transcend group for trans and non-binary young people. This will include increasing the number of one-to-one support sessions available and funding additional in-person activities.	£7,500	12	London-wide
